Guest Speaker Dr Megan Clark Chief Executive CSIRO

Dr Megan Clark is Chief Executive of CSIRO, Australia's national research agency and one of the leading mission-directed, multi-disciplinary applied research organisations in the world. CSIRO aims to deliver profound impact for industry, the community and for a sustainable future from its science and is well known for developing the wireless LAN now in over 4 billion devices world-wide.

Dr Clark is a geologist with a BSc (Hons) in Geology and PhD in Economic Geology from Queen's University Canada and began her career as a mine and exploration geologist.

Prior to CSIRO, Dr Clark led BHP Billiton's global efforts in Health, Safety and Environment and Community Engagement after heading BHP Billiton's Global Technology unit.

Prior to joining BHP Billiton Dr Clark led a small high-tech venture capital fund with NM Rothschild and Sons Australia and worked in a corporate venture fund with Advent International in Boston.

Dr Clark is a Principal in the Global Research Alliance which brings together nine global applied research peers to support inclusive innovation for the world's most disadvantaged. She is also a member of the Advisory Board of the Bank of Merrill Lynch in Australia, Japan's Science and Technology Forum Council, Trustee of the Science and Industry Endowment Fund and a member of the Advisory Board of the World Economic Forum's Risk report.

Dr Clark was made a Companion of the Order of Australia, AC in the Queen's birthday honours this year for eminent service to scientific research and development through fostering innovation to science administration through strategic leadership roles and to the development of public policy for technological sciences.

Dr Clark is a Fellow of the Academy of Technological Sciences and Engineering, a Fellow of the Australian Institute of Company Directors and the Australian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy.

THE KING DAVID SCHOOL FOUNDATION

TO KNOW AND UNDERSTAND  for future generations

SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The King David School is ranked as one of Melbourne's leading independent schools.

As part of its commitment to ensuring equality of access to an outstanding education, King David offers fee assistance to families through scholarships, and fee remissions, in excess of $2 million per year. This is a program supported by the whole School community as an expression of the School's commitment to social justice.

The School has established a Scholarship Fund to enable students to access an education that would not normally be available to them.

Proceeds from the Business Breakfast are directed to the Scholarship Fund.

Any donations to the Scholarship Fund are tax deductible.
