RSVP: 18 SEPTEMBER 2013

Dr Denis Napthine was sworn in as the 47th Premier of Victoria on 6 March 2013.

He is also Victoria’s Minister for Regional Cities and Racing.

He is a graduate of the University of Melbourne, with a Bachelor of Veterinary Science (BVSc) and Masters of Veterinary Studies (MVS).

He also holds a Masters in Business Administration (MBA) from Deakin University.

Dr Napthine has been actively involved in community services assisting the intellectually disabled. He and his wife Peggy spent several years as ‘house parents’ for intellectually disabled people during their time in Hamilton.

Dr Napthine was elected to the Parliament of Victoria in the October 1988 State Election, representing the seat of Portland in the Legislative Assembly.

The Premier’s vision is to lead a strong and decisive Victorian Coalition Government that delivers key infrastructure and better services for all Victorians, particularly those with special needs.

The King David School is ranked as one of Melbourne’s leading independent schools. As part of its commitment to ensuring equality of access to an outstanding education, King David offers fee assistance to families through scholarships, and fee remissions, in excess of $2 million per year. This is a program supported by the whole School community as an expression of the School’s commitment to social justice.

The School has established a Scholarship Fund to enable students to access an education that would not normally be available to them. Proceeds from the Business Breakfast are directed to the Scholarship Fund. Any donations to the Scholarship Fund are tax deductible.
