The meeting will be held in the Lyn and Michael Lawrence Family Music and Computer Studio at The Rebecca Magid Centre, 520 Orrong Road, Armadale, on Monday, 22 June 2015 commencing at 6:15pm.

The School Council is the governing body of The King David School. Its main role is to formulate and administer the School's policies, direct the School's finances and represent the School in the broader community. This includes raising funds through public appeals. Various sub-committees of Council operate and parents who have specific interests or skills are encouraged to join these sub-committees. The composition and operating guidelines of Council are governed by the Constitution, a copy of which is available on request from the School office located at Level 1, Rebecca Magid Centre, 520 Orrong Road, Armadale.

Copies of Annual Reports and Minutes of the 2014 Annual General Meeting may be inspected at the School office, after 2 June 2015 by a member of the School i.e. any adult (18 years and over) of the Jewish faith, or any parent of a child enrolled at the School who has paid the annual membership fee and has agreed to be bound by the Constitution of the School and whose application for membership has been accepted by School Council. Membership entitles a person to vote at the Annual General Meeting.

At this AGM, Mark Harrison, Jason Arnheim, Peter Kahan and Rabbi Gersh Lazarow have completed their terms and will stand again for their positions on Council. Erica Frydenberg, Rochelle Rothfield and Rick Tudor have not completed their terms of office and will be continuing.
